

English Teacher and Librarian

Shri Jasnath Asan is a quiet, non-commercialized, 500-year old ashram fortress on the edge of the Thar Desert of northern Rajasthan. It is home to about 12 full time employees, and many volunteers from the region and abroad who come for yoga education. To help the family make visitors more comfortable, we are seeking an experience English teacher and librarian to work on campus from October – March, 40 hours weekly.

Work Visa is available to qualified candidates with 5+ years experience.

Responsibilities:

- Daily English class
- Daily coaching sessions
- Catalogue and manage library books; checking in/out, recommendations, and acquisitions
- Writing and/or editing

Ideal candidate:

- Experienced ESL English teacher
- Can build curriculum and move students through it methodically
- Interested in contributing to our publications in any way (article, blog, etc.)
- Mature and patient, motivational
- Interested in different cultures and lifestyles
- Vegetarian
- Interested in yoga
- Journalism experience a plus

Compensation:

- Domestic train transportation from Delhi
- Monthly stipend inr 5,000
- Participation in all family cultural events
- 1-2 yoga classes Mon-Sat

For information concerning accommodations, and culture please see our page <http://shrijasnathasan.org/karma-yoga/>. With less than 5 years experience the candidate can join the ashram on a tourist Visa. With excess of 5 years experience, the candidate can join with an employment Visa.

Application:

Review our website to understand our work focus and mission. To express interest in this opportunity send cv and cover letter to careers@shrijasnathan.org. Final selection is September 15.